

Affiliate Membership Benefits

Affiliate members are individuals or firms which, while not engaged in real estate sales, have an interest in acquiring information concerning real estate and support the purpose of Texas REALTORS®. Portions of Affiliate Members' annual dues are allocated to the local and state associations which offer benefits to Affiliate Members.

Bastrop County Board of REALTORS® (BCBOR)

Here are a few of the benefits for joining as an Affiliate Member:

- Business name and contact information listed on bastroprealtors.org
- Invitations to monthly BCBOR networking luncheons
- Opportunities to speak at or sponsor luncheons
- Invitation to annual awards banquet where you can be recognized for outstanding service
- Receive association correspondence, including education notices, monthly e-newsletter, and meeting announcements
- Subscription to Texas REALTOR® magazine
- Exclusive opportunities to sponsor BCBOR education programs
- Eligibility to serve on an association committee or task force
- For a complete list of the discounts and services available to Texas REALTORS® and affiliate members, visit texasrealestate.com (Excluded services include zipForm, Legal Hotline and other benefits that are strictly related to a realtor's business endeavors).
